Important Information to Note:

It is the responsibility of the providing organization to ensure compliance with the NASW CE Approval Program.

It is the responsibility of each provider to submit a post event summary evaluation for each program. Summary evaluations must be submitted to NASW no later than every 60 days after each time you conduct your program if it is an in-person event or quarterly for distance learning events. You should submit 1 summary evaluation which is a compilation of the participant evaluations for your event. Do not send individual participant evaluations or sign-in information.

Please be aware:

The following states do not accept National CE Approval Programs and require individual program/provider application processes:

New Jersey (Applications may be filed with the NASW New Jersey Chapter)

New York (Applications may be filed with the NASW New York State Chapter)

North Carolina (Applications may be filed with the NASW North Carolina Chapter)

West Virginia

The Following Board does not have Continuing Education Requirements:

Puerto Rico
